

$11,550, and an Enri Stejnar chandelier for $7,025. Prices include a 22 percent buyer's premium.

Zhang Daqian scroll, $236,000, Michaan's

A hanging scroll by the 20th century Chinese artist Zhang Daqian, titled Horse and depicting a lone horse, sold for $236,000 at a Fine Asian Works of Art Auction held Dec. 15 by Michaan's Auctions in Alameda, Calif. Another hanging scroll by Daqian, titled Prunis and Bamboo, went for $177,000; a set of four gilt-silver filigree and enameled female warriors chalked up $32,450; a gilt-bronze figure of Yama and Chamunda also brought $32,450; and one lot of four carved snuff bottles, with a jade toggle, made $26,550. Prices include a 17 percent buyer's premium.